Jack Zamow of Belgium died of complications of pneumonia Monday, Jan. 7, at Heritage Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Port Washington. He was 80.

A memorial service with full military honors for Mr. Zamow will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 13, at St. Mark Lutheran Church in Belgium. The Rev. Wayne King will officiate.

Visitation will be at the church from 6 p.m. until the service Sunday.

In lieu of flowers, memorials to the Humane Society or the Stars and Stripes Honor Flight are suggested.

Funeral arrangements were handled through Eernisse Funeral Home, Port Washington.
